Q1. Saumya and Mahima are applying to content writing internship at a very famous lifestyle blog which is known for travel, health, shopping, literature etc. Both Saumya & Mahima love to write and have been a part of their college Magazine editor team. They also have their own blogs. Below are their answers to the question "Why should you be hired for this internship". Which answer do you think is better and why?

Answer by Saumya

As I am from the same industry, So I am looking for a good organisation to enhance my skills and talent. I have relevant knowledge in this area. I think my skills, Knowledge and experience will contribute to the growth of the company. If you hire me, I will do my best for the organisation

Answer by Mahima

I believe that I am a right fit for this internship because I have great interest in creative writing. I love reading and have interest in different genre of novels, which would help me in writing blogs on diverse topics on your platform. I have worked as an assistant editor for my college magazine. I myself run a blog on health and fitness and have a strong command over English language. I am really eager to work with your company in order to enhance my skills and to gain experience. I promise to put my full efforts in order to bring new ideas and insights to the table while working with your team.

- ☐ Saumya's answer is better because it is brief and easy for the employer to read
- ☐ Saumya's answer is better because it is generic and she can apply to many content writing internships using this answer

- ☐ Mahima's answer is longer than Saumya's answer. Hence, it is better
- ☒ Mahima's answer is better because she has described about her writing skills and experiences ✓
- ☒ Mahima's answer is better because she has specifically mentioned her work in health and fitness domain which is the same domain as that of the company ✓
- ☐ Both the answers are equally good

Explanation:

While applying to an internship, always customize your answer for that specific profile and company. Include points such as skills and past experience you may have that are relevant to that internship and why are you interested in that particular internship. Writing a good answer to this question will significantly improve your chances of getting shortlisted for the internship.

Q2. Uday and Anirudh are applying to graphic design internship at HUdesign. Below are their answers to the question "Why should you be hired for this internship". Which answer do you think is better and why?

Answer by Uday

I am a self taught design enthusiast. I have good knowledge of Photoshop, Illustrator and After Effects. Creating design layouts and graphics is something I enjoy. I have not done any internship in Graphic design so far but I like to keep trying things on my own like creating graphics for different scenarios and dummy posters for different organisations etc. You can see my projects here - drive.google.com/dummyabc. Through this internship, I wish to explore my strength and weaknesses and learn more about design under a highly professional team of HUdesign. I assure that I will give my best if I get hired for your organisation. I can give 3- 4 months to the company as an intern.

Answer by Anirudh

Hello Sir, I am Anirudh Sharma from Mumbai and I am in my 3rd year of college. I am currently pursuing B.tech in Computer science and I got a CGPA of 8.3 in my 2nd year. I am here because your requirements matches my skills and education. Even though I am not experienced, I am keen at my interests. I am a hardworker - always ready to take up challenges and work hard. I do all my work with a lot of passion and sincerity. All of what I learnt is mostly self taught with a couple of really good mentors here and there which helps me in respecting more and admiring more this field.

- ☐ Neither of the answers are good as they have not done any graphic design internship before
- ☒ Uday's answer is better because he has specifically mentioned the tools which he has knowledge of and which are relevant to his profile ✓

- ☒ Uday's answer is better because he has given a link to his project.
- ☒ Uday's answer is better because he has shown his interest in working with the organisation he is applying to
- ☐ Anirudh's answer is better because he has mentioned about his education and CGPA
- ☐ Anirudh's answer is better because he has mentioned about his sincerity and hard work
- ☐ Anirudh's answer is better because it is generic and he can apply to multiple internships using the same answer

Explanation:

While applying to an internship, always customize your answer for that specific profile and company. Writing a good answer to this question will significantly improve your chances of getting shortlisted for the internship.

Q3. Samay has been applying to internships on Internshala. He searched for the answer to the question "Why should you be hired for this internship?" on Google and copy pasted one of the results that he found as his answer. Do you think it is the smart thing to do?

- ☐ Yes, it's a very good strategy and it is easy to copy and paste answers. The employer will never get to know about it.
- ☒ No, because employers can easily identify an answer that is copied from internet. It will not leave a good impression on the employer
- ☐ Yes, because Google will send you a T-shirt for your smart work
- ☐ No, because answers found on internet have lot of grammatical mistakes.

Explanation:

Never copy an answer from the internet or from a friend. You should always write an original answer as only you would be able to write a good customized answer. An employer can easily identify an answer that is copied by searching or by using online tools.

Q4. Below are 2 answers to the question "Why should you be hired for this internship?". Check both the answers on Google (copy paste the answer on Google search bar) and tell which one has been copied from the internet.

Answer 1

Talking to people, empathizing with them and convincing them has been my forte. It is not only something I am good at but it's also something I really enjoy doing. Hence marketing has always been my department of interest and would like to nurture this knack of talking into something productive and solid. I am also a part of my college's annual fest sponsorship team and I was able to convert 2-3 sponsors last year. My application to the internship is an assurance of the fact that I will leave no stone unturned to master the art of marketing and prove to be an asset to your esteemed company.

Answer 2

I want to do this internship to assess my own inherent abilities and potential. I am presently in the final year of my college degree and have gained a lot of academic knowledge about this domain. However, I feel the need to know how much is actually relevant from a practical perspective today. Joining your company will enable me to discover this and help me to make the required course corrections before I begin my professional career. I am convinced that your company is the right place for me to experience the practical aspects of working in this industry and also gain useful new insights into it.

- ☐ Answer 1 is copied from the internet
- ☒ Answer 2 is copied from the internet
- ☐ Both are copied from the internet
- ☐ Both are original answers and have not been copied

Explanation:

Never copy an answer from the internet or from a friend. You should always write an original answer as only you would be able to write a good customized answer. An employer can easily identify an answer that is copied by searching or by using online tools.

Q5. Avinash has a keen interest in design. He is a good sketch artist and wants to explore graphic designing as a career. He is looking to do an internship in this field. However, he does not have knowledge of any design tools. He could-

- ☐ Drop the plan of becoming a graphic designer and focus on his studies
- ☒ Take up online tutorials available to learn design tools like Photoshop etc. and practice them on his own so that his chances of getting an internship improve
- ☒ Take up graphic design courses to learn the tools to improve his chances of getting an internship.
- ☐ He should directly apply to internships as the company will teach him the basics of the tools he is required to work with.

Explanation:

If you have keen interest in a particular field but do not have knowledge of tools or experience, it does not mean that you cannot apply to internships. However, before you apply, it is recommended that you get some basic knowledge of the field through trainings/online tutorials. This will increase your chances of getting selected for an internship. You can also practice building your skills by on personal projects in relevant fields. Companies do not expect you to have experience but relevant skills might be required.

Q6. Aakash has interest in writing and has been applying to internships in content writing but has been getting rejected because he feels other applicants have better writing skills than him. What are the steps that he can take to improve his writing skills?

- ☒ Start his own blog and write regularly on it. ✓
- ☒ Follow good bloggers and writers on Quora, Medium etc. and learn from their work ✓
- ☒ Enroll himself in creative writing course ✓
- ☐ It's too late, he cannot improve his writing skills

Explanation:

In certain fields like content writing, graphic design etc. employers would prefer if you had some experience/ work samples to show them. If you want to build your career in a particular field, you should try to build skills and work samples required to get an internship or job in that field. You could work on projects, take a training/course to improve your skills and build your work samples. This will help increase your chances of getting selected for a job/internship.

Q7. You received a message from an employer for an internship that you had recently applied to. You should -

- ☐ Always read the message and respond to the employer only if you are interested in the internship
- ☒ Always read the message and respond to the employer, even if you are no longer interested in the internship and let the employer know. ✓
- ☐ You do not need to reply to the message. The employer will call you if he wants to hire you.

Explanation:

Even if you are no longer available for the internship you applied to, you should always reply to the employer and let them know upfront so that they can start reaching out to other candidates. It is unprofessional to not do so and the employer may report you on Internshala for this.

Q8. You applied to an internship via Internshala. The employer has asked you to submit an assignment within 3 days. Select which statements are true -

- ☒ You should try to submit the assignment within the given time. If you need more time, you should request the employer for additional time. ✓

- ☐ Its okay to submit the assignment later than the given deadline without asking the employer
- ☐ You do not need to do any assignment. You have already shown your work experience to the employer
- ☐ You should ask your friend to do the assignment for you if there is less time.

Explanation:

If you receive an assignment from the employer, always try to complete it on time. If you are unable to do so and need an extension, let the employer know the same and request the employer for more time.

Q9. When responding to the employer over chat, you should-
