Q7. Anamika had applied to an internship on Internshala. The employer scheduled a telephonic interview with her for which she confirmed her availability. She could not answer the phone at the scheduled time of the call when it rang. What can she do now?

- ☐ She could wait the employer to call her back again. There is no further action required from her side.
- ☒ She could call the employer back as soon as possible, apologize and check if she can be interviewed then or request for the interview to be rescheduled to another time. ✓
- ☐ She could give a missed call to the employer. He would call her back if he still wants to give her a chance.
- ☐ She could drop a message to the employer apologising and requesting for another time slot ✓

Explanation:

If you receive a call from an employer and you are unable to answer the call, you should call back the employer at the earliest possible or drop a message and ask him/her a good time to call back.
